

Critics' Choice

1 'Three Sisters'

Whitehall Theatre

Fluent, sexy account of Chekhov's classic by the Oxford Stage Company with Kelly Reilly outstanding as Irina.

2 'Oroonoko'

RSC The Other Place

Exhilarating, exciting adaptation by 'Biyi Bandele of Aphra Behn's rousing polemic against slavery (pictured).

3 'De La Guarda'

The Roundhouse

Clubbing and theatre combine in the thrills and spills of these fearless Argentinian mavericks.

4 'The House of Bernarda Alba'

Young Vic

Shared Experience conquer the emotional challenges of Lorca's drama.

5 'Icarus Falling'

The Museum Of

Primitive Science present an inventive, visual realisation of the painting by Breughel of the son who flew too close to the sun.

6 'The Bedsit'

BAC

James Ellis waits for a visit from two young Irishman in this highly charged political play by Paul Sellar.